Dear Vendor:

The Defense Logistics Agency will host a Privatization Industry Day to discuss disestablishing the wholesale supply, storage, and distribution functions for all packaged petroleum, oils, lubricants, compressed gases and cylinders.

This Industry Day will be held on Wednesday, December 14, 2005, 9:00 a.m. EST, at Defense Supply Center Richmond, DRMO Auction Room, in Richmond, VA. The Industry Day will broadly address the privatization efforts for the following worldwide support functions: 1) forecasting, 2) inventory management, 3) procurement of supplies, 4) storage and warehousing, and 5) distribution (including disposal). The Federal Supply Classes (FSCs) include: 6830, 8120, and 9150. This Industry Day is for informational purposes only. DLA is interested in receiving industry comments and recommendations regarding regions, contract terms, industry capabilities and constraints. Open dialogue is welcomed at the Industry Day and written comments will also be accepted.

Additional information regarding this Industry Day is posted on the DSCR website, <http://www.dscr.dla.mil/UserWeb/FAGA/index.html>, Located on the right-hand side under "Specialized Support," click on "Privatization Efforts." This website has an email link if you have additional questions.

If you plan to attend this Industry Day, please RSVP by December 9, 2005, 2:00 PM EST, by calling 804-279-6262. You will be prompted to provide your company name, CAGE code, primary point-of-contact, telephone number, and number of attendees.

Sincerely,

CYNTHIA B. LANTZ
Contracting Officer
